

We're changing the travel industry for good.

ApogeeTravel.com

Apogee Travel has built a brighter future for hotel booking by turning a portion of every stay into a charitable donation. This fact sheet will help you understand what Apogee Travel does for travelers, hotels and charities—and how your charity can benefit by getting involved.

A true win-win-win.

Travelers get the same great deals.

Apogee Travel doesn't charge more for hotel bookings. We offer the same rates on room nights as every other online booking site.

Hotels can do more with impact nights.

Apogee Travel enables hotels to fill vacancies by donating empty rooms to us—something we call an impact night. When travelers book them and pick their favorite cause, the entire value of those nights is contributed directly to charity.

Charities get a well-deserved boost.

For charities, the benefits of working with Apogee Travel are clear. Everyone who books with us instantly becomes a donor—creating a broader revenue base and amplifying the causes that matter.

It's easy to get involved. Here's how.

Apogee Travel is a great way to raise awareness and grow your donor base. And the more you share, the more your organization will receive in return.

To help, we've created a charity toolkit that you can use to introduce what we do—all while respecting your brand's equity and voice.
